let's get kudos!

People are often really excited to give us testimonials. I was nervous writing to all three of these people. You can see the email threads and how it went.

I'm so glad you liked it.
Our paths will cross again.

Penn,
Thanks! You two are the best in the world at communication, so putting words in your mouth makes me smile.
Performers often come to me with help in communicating, so you're in the position to really make me look good. I checked with Mr Steven Banks to make sure I wasn't writing something too crazy...

Here's an idea...
"Scot helped us with a big announcement at the E3 conference. Get Nery if you want people to notice and love you.
Scot was our secret weapon for a big announcement at the E3 expo. Working with him was easy and the event was a success. Then, he worked to get us booked for a gig. I'll always listen to some Scot Nery advice unless he pisses me off."

Thank you!

Penn,
I am looking for help. No sweat if you don't respond to this... I am helping badass performers change their businesses and getting them big results. Super fulfilling work. I need to get more clients. It would be super helpful if I could get a simple cellphone video of you saying something good about me. Something honest about what you know about me. My favorite clients are magicians.

Instead of putting my name..can you put [REDACTED] Entertainment, Inc.

As you have worked with [REDACTED] before too.

Moby,
Hope you had a good trip! Boobietrap was amazing.

This is big, I know. I want to get this specific accolade from someone — it says everything I need to tell to a potential booker... and I was wondering if it can be you because you know what I do. Could I attribute this quote to you so I could use it on my website?

"Scot Nery is caffeine. Audiences perk up, tune in, and feel good!"

Also, I love you and what you do for people. I'd be glad to boost what you're doing in any way I can. I'm good at branding, web technology, digital aesthetics, and audience building. Lemme know!
